... that since 1975 – 6,000 refugees from over 30 countries have escaped famine, war, genocide, and political and religious persecution to be successfully resettled in our Archdiocese thanks to Catholic Charities?

... that more than 34,000 families and children of all faiths living in poor and impoverished backgrounds are helped each year by the Catholic Charities Family Service Centers from 38 locations throughout Hartford, Litchfield and New Haven counties?

... that since 2009 more than 500 parishioners from more than 138 of our parishes have received assistance with food, utilities, rent and medical expenses thanks to the Archbishop's Emergency Assistance Fund, developed and managed by Catholic Charities?

... Catholic Charities is an employer of more than five hundred social service professionals ranging from early learning specialists to licensed care social workers to psychologists and psychiatrists?

... Catholic Charities distributes over 90% of the donated dollars to clients from a balanced budget of $26,000,000?

... Catholic Charities is funded by the Archbishop's Annual Appeal, federal and state grants, the United Way, client fees, and gifts from individuals, corporations, and foundations?

... Catholic Charities operates 9 Early Learning Centers preparing more than 200 pre-school children each year for a successful transition to kindergarten programs throughout the Archdiocese?

... Catholic Charities provides critical support services to families such as literacy classes, employment services and similar programs that promote self sufficiency to more than 8,685 individuals each year?

Comprehensive Youth Services

Celebrating...

...More than 20 years of services to Hartford's youth!

The Comprehensive Youth Services Department of Catholic Charities provides prevention and intervention programs for Hartford youth during the school year at Milner Core Knowledge Academy and Hartford Public High School Nursing Academy. A four-week summer program called "Summer Survivor" helps stem learning loss over the summer through an innovative, interactive program.
